

Lanarkshire Cancer Care Trust

THE VOLUNTEER DRIVER SERVICE

A Local Charity Helping Local People

Whistl provide reliability and vital cost efficiencies

Lanarkshire Cancer Care Trust is a local charity helping cancer patients all over Lanarkshire by providing free transport when they need to visit hospital for treatments and appointments.

Whistl send 4,000 letters per annum to supporters of the charity.

Frank Roy at Lanarkshire Cancer Care Trust explains that “Cost savings and efficiency are vital to us. Whistl helped ease the collection and preparation of post, resulting in time and cost efficiencies. With their help we were able to increase our posting capacity.”

As a charity, we need every penny to deliver our free transport service to Lanarkshire Cancer Patients.

Whistl give us the reliability and pricing we need.
